

Performance trade-off relative to full model

Values denote relative change compared with the full model; negative values indicate lower control effort.